

PRESS RELEASE
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Micro-Coax Signs Youngewirth & Olenick

Pottstown, PA - November 1, 2006: Micro-Coax is pleased to announce the appointment of Youngewirth and Olenick Associates as their exclusive representative in the Arizona, New Mexico, and Nogales, Mexico territories. Youngewirth and Olenick's market focus is on military and commercial RF and microwave devices, components and subsystem applications. They pride themselves on their adherence to the company's philosophy of : Integrity, Tenacity, Technical Acumen, and Teamwork. Youngewirth and Olenick Associates represent RF and Microwave manufacturers who are leaders in their respective product areas. This approach , coupled with values, sales tools, and highly effective personnel, allows them to truly be "Your Partner in the Southwest." Micro-Coax is thrilled to have Youngewirth and Olenick Associates join the organization.

About Micro-Coax:

Micro-Coax is a leading provider of transmission line solutions for radio frequency (RF) and microwave applications. Serving the defense, satellite, telecommunications, test and measurement markets for more than forty years, Micro-Coax has earned a reputation for mission performance and excellent customer service. A broad technology base allows Micro-Coax to quickly respond to customer needs with optimized solutions of coaxial cables, connectors, harness assemblies and conductive fibers.

For further information:

Visit our web site at www.micro-coax.com